

Fall Gift Guide!

Pooki & Co. have finally arrived!

Pooki & Co. is a French line of toys that features a collection of stuffed animals illustrated with cool and innovative designs geared towards a design-savvy consumer. The characters introduce you to a new world of whimsical and endearing creatures. Pooki products are sold in upscale children stores, design gifts shops, museum stores like MOMA and department stores such as Le Bon Marché in Paris or Barney's in New York. Pooki dolls are made of the softest, machine washable fleece. The dolls are safe for all ages and comply with the European and American Toy Safety Standards. Come and meet Pooki and his friends! Kaloo French Designer Toys!

The Kaloo family of luxury plush toys was created in 1998. The company, which was mainly set up for the European market, now exports to about 35 countries. After only a few years Kaloo has become a well-known brand in many countries. All items are produced according to the compulsory safety standards. They have some of the most unique baby products on the market. Their Moonlight Bears and Rabbit are 100% washable and 100% baby safe, and make an ideal nursery accessory. The Warming Doudou Pillows make a perfect gift for the tummy-sensitive baby, or simply for the cooler days ahead. Their sweet-smelling 100% baby safe perfumes make an incredible gift, and will be loved by babies and moms alike. Incredible soft and musical toys will keep your baby occupied for hours. And of course, their sweet and plush toys offer safe and beautiful keepsakes for years to come.

Incredibly luxurious baby jewelry galore!

The Silver Company provides unique and contemporary jewelry for babies and girls of the highest quality. Every piece of jewelry is hand-made with special attention to detail and each piece is carefully inspected for the best quality and safety provided. All bracelets and necklaces are strung using a stainless steel wire which is safe for babies.

This line of jewelry uses Sterling Silver materials, including lobster clasps that are easier to handle and last longer, extension chains, beads, charms, tags, and end crimps that give every bracelet or necklace a professional finish.
