

Terrific Gift Ideas – Something for All!

Trumpette - The Perfect Little Dozen

The creator of Trumpette got a fabulous idea when he moved to Petaluma, Sonoma County, from bustling San Francisco. The Perfect Little Dozen was created in honor of Petaluma being the "Chicken Capital." With the success of The Perfect Little Dozen, continued developing baby socks that were packaged in venues with a more contemporary look. Trumpette's delicious assortment of baby socks completes any baby's wardrobe! Packaged and ready to go, these will be the baby shower favorite. 100% pre-shrunk cotton, complete with non-skid bottoms. Machine wash, tumble dry. Brightly colored patterns!

Jack Rabbit Creations - Old Becomes New

At Jack Rabbit Creations, they work hard to bring you heirloom quality toys and gifts that adults and kids love. Their products are updated twists on classics with original art and amazing packaging. Like the Magnetic Wiener Dog. Each soft little link has magnets sewn inside (safe for all) that link together to make the coolest "hot dog" ever. Or, Mac the Monkey Wooden Stacking Toy. This toy will bring a smile to any toddler's face. It features a classic, all-wood construction and comes in a colorful gift box.

Sozo - Design for Life, Comfort for All!

Sozo offers products that extend beyond infancy and into childhood years. All Sozo products are constructed of quality materials that are also easy to care for, so they are both kid and parent-friendly. For example, a baby boy will take direct aim at you when being changed. But now you can protect yourself with Weeblock, a cup-like covering to place between his legs at changing time. Under the soft jersey covering lies an absorbing sponge. Bright color combinations, and yes, the whole thing's machine washable. You can also turn a baby's room into a world of fantasy with a supporting cast of critters with Sozo's help. Their amazing crib sets include the quintessential quilt, easiest-care bumpers, a 200 thread count cotton fitted sheet and a cotton skirt. Many different characters and designs are available, but all are super!
