Spiffy Baby Keeps Rewarding

To display our appreciation and gratitude for being our loyal customers we introduced to you our Spiffy Reward Points Program last month. But we haven't stopped there. We are also giving away a whopping 500 Points out to anyone who refers a friend (click here for rules and restrictions).

Today, we are taking it a step further... Get paid to write a product review! Earn 10 Spiffy Baby Reward Points for each approved product review! We're looking for reviews of items purchased from Spiffy Baby within the past year. Reviews should be 50 words or longer and give specifics about what you or your child liked/didn't like about the item reviewed. Upon approval and publication of your review, the points are deposited into your account!

At SpiffyBaby.com we feel that you should be rewarded for providing a service to others. So to thank you for letting others know how you feel about a certain product, we will add 10 Points into your account. The more products you review for us, the more points accumulate, the more free products you get! It's easy! It's fun! It's rewarding!

Koi is Back, Plus More Sozo Items in Stock!

We waited and waited, and now... he's baaack! Koi nursery bedding and accessories are back in stock. Transform your nursery into an exotic aquarium filled with the legendary "good fortune" of the Koi fish. Curious Koi and friends swim lazily around their bamboo pond, always keeping an eye on baby. Fascinated with the outside world, they can't wait to make friends with your little one. Plus, we now have many other fun patterns and items by Sozo. From gorgeous crib sets, to always needed Weeblocks, Spiffy Baby has it!

Bring Fun Art into Your Child's Name

These personalized hand-painted ceramic tile animals paintings by Pily Art are adorable. They add a special flair to any baby's nursery or kid's bedroom. Whimsical animals grace these colorful paintings accented by your child's name. Artwork is original watercolor art by Pily Torres that is printed on high quality ceramic tile. It comes framed and can be personalized with baby's name, birthday or even a special message. This makes a fantastic baby shower gift, birthday gift, christening or holiday gift!
